

CHAPTER 5

WISDOM

With Godly wisdom, we're able to handle life's hurdles gracefully, choose wisely, and lead a life that honors God.

Eckhart Tolle

How much better to get wisdom than gold... (Proverbs 16:16a).

Wisdom – The ability to see life from God’s point of view. The immense value God places on wisdom often goes unrecognized by many Christians. The Lord gives wisdom to believers not only for their own benefit but also so they can freely share it with others.

A consuming restlessness settled on Tucker after eight years as a pastor. Praying for a definitive sign about his next career step, he awaited the opening of a new chapter.

Unlocking Godly wisdom

Turn to God for wisdom

The Lord assures wisdom for anyone who seeks it. Therefore, consistently pray for wisdom, especially during difficult times or when you're at a crossroads.

Wisdom springs forth inside all of us. Christians interpret a brilliant insight as wisdom from above, seeing it as a Divine connection with Almighty God.

As Tucker prayed for guidance, he recalled his high school passion for accounting. He came to see that, as a pastor, he preferred managing finances over engaging with people.

The unfolding continues in Chapter 5 of the book Spiritual Powers by Russell D. Ward